FROM THE TEAM RECTOR

On Sunday 19 July we will be keeping the Patronal Festival of St Mary Magdalene (Joint Parish Eucharist 10am). We will welcome as our guest preacher Brother Sam SSF, from the Society of St Francis Friary in Plaistow. He is known to many in our parish having served in Newham for many years. It will also be a bittersweet festival this year as it will be the last with Chris as organist and choirmaster. Dr Christopher Maxim joined us in January 2021, following the 2020 restoration of St Mary's 1918 Rushworth & Dreaper organ. Besides his proficiency on this instrument, Chris has blessed us with his composing work, built up our choir so magnificently, organised a number of special choral services and been a great colleague and support to me and the ministry team. Chris will take up his new post at St Benet Fink, Tottenham, in September and will go with our gratitude and prayers.

Turning to events this week, please do come and support Hazel, Chrissie and Molara as they are sworn in as churchwardens by Archdeacon Mike at the Visitation Service this Wednesday (see details in Notices below). Please pray for them, for our deputy warden Penny, and all those appointed to these roles in the Deanery of Newham.

God bless you

Fr Paul

ECO CHURCH

The team had a great day at the Green Fair last Sunday. We shared a stall with the Green Gym team to tell people about the Nature Reserve, and what a jewel in East Ham it is. It's amazing how many people in Newham don't know about it - let's spread the word! If you haven't visited in a while, come and have a walk around. And what about other green spaces nearby? Have you visited Plaistow Greenway Orchard, Beckton Itchycoo Park, or Plashet Park Nature Trail. Look for the Newham's Hidden Gems poster to find out more - this is displayed in all our buildings.
